A Personal Explanation.

During the discussion in the Republican Convention of last evening, I took occasion, in supporting the principles of good government, to impute to a gentleman (not of the convention, but of the party) motives, to my mind, calculated to bring dis-repute and injury to the Republican party of Hawaii. Mr. Humphreys, had made the public charge up in the floor of the convention, to the purpose of the authors of the Committee's report, then under discussion, was to prevent the Hawaian and Portuguese voters from carrying the primaries, and controlling the Republican party.

Mr. Lorrin Andrews, the alleged author of the report, has this morning denied to having made any such statement to Mr.
Humphreys, or having ever entertained any such purpose as was imputed to Mr.
Humphreys to the authors of the report.
This brings the matter to a question of veracity between Mr. Humphreys and Mr.
Andrews. Whilst not receding from the stand I took in denouncing any method which, in my opinion, would alienate from the party the support of the Hawaian vote, I feel that an injustice has been done Mr. Andrews, and I now publicly withdraw anything which I may have said reflecting upon him.

Cunha. The area is 26,700 square feet, and the upset price is $8000. Terms are U. S. gold coin.

Accident at Wailua.

A native, Kamukila by name, fell from the new mill at Wailua plantation yesterday and broke an arm and a leg. He was brought up on the train last night and taken to the Queen's Hospital.
